

Castle Resources Appoints Lenny Foreht as President and Chief Executive Officer

TORONTO, ONTARIO -- (Marketwire – December 1, 2014)

Castle Resources Inc. (“Castle” or the “Company”) (CSE:CRI) is pleased to announce that Mr. Lenny Foreht has been appointed President and Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the Company, effective November 27, 2014.

Mr. Foreht, who was previously VP Operations and Corporate Development of the Company, will be assuming the role of President and CEO from Mr. Mike Sylvestre who is stepping down from both roles. Mr. Sylvestre has served as Castle's Chief Executive Officer since July 1, 2011 and as President of Castle since June 30, 2010.

Stated Mr. Mike Sylvestre: “Lenny and I have worked closely over the past 5 years. From the initial acquisition of the Granduc in 2010, through highly-successful drilling campaigns that yielded increasingly impressive copper resource estimates and culminated in positive technical and engineering studies, Lenny has been a key member of the Castle team. Shareholders will be in good hands as Castle seeks to not only advance the Granduc, but begin a renewed focus on acquiring prospective copper assets.”

Castle is pleased to announce that Mr. Sylvestre will remain a director and has been appointed as the Chairman of Castle’s board of directors.

Stated Mr. Foreht: “The board, management and employees of Castle are very grateful to Mike for his key contributions in growing the Granduc Copper Project to its current stage of development. Mike skillfully guided Castle as it transformed the Granduc from a legacy brownfield into a new and exciting Canadian copper development project. We are pleased that Mike will continue to guide the Company as Chairman.”
